RETIRED—ACT OF MAY 7, 1932 (630)

Retired list of officers advanced to their war-time rank in accordance with the provisions contained in an act of Congress approved May 7, 1932, which reads as follows:

"That all warrant officers and enlisted men who served in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States during the World War or the Spanish-American War, and whose service during such war was creditable, and who have been or hereafter may be retired according to law, shall on the date of approval of this act or upon retirement in the case of those now on the active lists of the services named herein, be advanced in rank on the retired list to the highest commissioned, warrant, or enlisted grade held by them during such war: Provided, That nothing in this act shall entitle any of the personnel described herein, while on active duty, to any other rank than that in which they were serving at the time of retirement· And provided further, That no increase in active or retired pay or allowances shall result from the passage of this act."

NOTES.—In determining the rate of pay to which an officer is entitled, (a) determine the base pay by reference to rank and service[2] or pay period purposes, (b) then determine the applicable rate of pay according to that base pay increased by 5 percent for each 3 years of service for longevity purposes up to 30 years. These footnotes constitute statements of law. For detailed information, instructions in Bureau of Supplies and Accounts Manual must be consulted.

[1]Service for longevity purposes—

(a) Commissioned officers, except commissioned warrant officers.—For purposes of computing pay of commissioned officers on active duty, commissioned service, including retired service, active and inactive, in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, Public Health Service, Organized Militia prior to July 1, 1916, active National Guard (of the several States, Territories and the District of Columbia), National Guard Reserve, National Guard of the United States, Officers Reserve Corps of the Army, Naval Militia, National Naval Volunteers, Naval Reserve Force, Naval Reserve, Marine Corps Reserve Force, Marine Corps Reserve, Coast Guard Reserve, Reserve Corps of the Public Health Service, Philippine Scouts, and Philippine Constabulary shall be counted. For commissioned officers of the Naval Reserve and for officers of the Navy appointed pursuant to the Act of August 27, 1940, active service under an appointment made prior to August 4, 1942, in the grade of aviation cadet (as distinguished from enlisted aviation cadet) shall be counted. Officers who were in the service on June 30, 1922, and who have been continuously in service since that date shall count, in addition, any service which was then counted in computing longevity pay and service as a contract surgeon serving full time.

During the existence of war declared by Congress and for 6 months immediately following termination of such war, in computing the pay of commissioned officers on active duty, all service, including retired service, active and inactive, in commissioned, warrant, and enlisted status in any of the services mentioned in the preceding paragraph, the regular Army Reserve and the enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army shall be counted.

(b) Commissioned warrant officers.—For purposes of computing longevity pay of commissioned warrant officers, commissioned service, active and inactive in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, and Public Health Service, and the Reserve components thereof, and in the active National Guard shall be counted. Commissioned warrant officers in the service on June 30, 1922, shall count, in addition, any service which was then counted in computing longevity pay.

(c) Warrant Officers.—For purposes of computing longevity pay of warrant officers, active Federal service in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, and Public Health Service, and the Reserve components thereof, shall be counted; and in addition, service (active and inactive) in the active National Guard of the several States, Territories, and District of Columbia, Naval Reserve (including Fleet Reserve), Naval Reserve Force, Marine Corps Reserve, Marine Corps Reserve Force, and Coast Guard Reserve.

[2]Service for pay period purposes—

(a) Commissioned officers, except commissioned warrant officers.—For purposes of determining the pay periods of commissioned officers, such service as may be counted in computing longevity pay shall be counted.

(b) Commissioned warrant officers, U. S. N.—For purposes of determining the pay periods of commissioned warrant officers of the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, with creditable record on the active list, only active commissioned service in the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, and the Reserve components thereof shall be counted.

(c) Commissioned warrant officers, U. S. N. R.—For purposes of determining the pay periods of commissioned warrant officers of the Reserve forces of the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, with creditable record on the active list, commissioned service, active and inactive, in the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, and the Reserve components thereof shall be counted.

[3]Rental allowance.—An officer without dependents is not entitled to rental allowance under any of the following conditions: (a) while he is on sea duty unless the sea duty is temporary duty not exceeding three months; (b) while he is on field duty unless his commanding officer certifies that he was necessarily required to procure quarters at his own expense; (c) while he occupies (or is assigned) public quarters. An officer with dependents is not entitled to rental allowance under either of the following conditions: (a) while he is assigned public quarters and his dependents are not prevented by reason of orders of competent authority from dwelling with him; (b) while his dependents occupy public quarters.

[4]Subsistence allowance.—Subsistence allowance on this table is computed on the basis of 365 days in a year.

[5]Base pay.—Base pay is payable only to commissioned and warrant officers with less than 3 years of service for longevity purposes. All other officers are entitled to the pay shown in the appropriate columns of the table above, i. e., base pay plus a longevity increase amounting to 5 percent for each 3 years of service (as defined in footnote 1) up to 30 years.

[6]A warrant officer promoted to commissioned warrant officer may be paid the pay provided for a warrant officer if greater than the pay of a commissioned warrant officer. When the total pay and allowances of a commissioned warrant officer shall exceed the rate of $458.33 per month, the amount of the rental allowance to which such officer is entitled shall be reduced by the amount above $458.33.

*Commissioned warrant officers during first 10 years of commissioned service are entitled to base pay at the rate of $2,100 per annum and the allowances of the second pay period; a certificate of creditable record is not required.

[1]From and including December 22, 1942, and until 6 months after termination of the present war, members of the Navy Nurse Corps (including Reserves) are entitled to the pay and allowances shown in the above tables.

[2]For the purpose of determining the length of service of nurses of the Navy or Naval Reserve, active service in the Army or Navy Nurse Corps, active service as a contract nurse prior to February 2, 1901, and active service as a reserve nurse since February 2, 1901 shall be counted.

[3]A nurse is not entitled to rental allowance while on sea duty unless the sea duty is temporary duty not exceeding three months, while she is on field duty unless her commanding officer certifies that she was necessarily required to procure quarters at her own expense, or while she occupies or is assigned public quarters without charge.

[4]Subsistence allowance in these tables is computed on the basis of a 365 day year and a 30 day month. For a year or month of a greater or lesser number of days the amounts should be correspondingly increased or decreased. A nurse is not entitled to subsistence allowance when furnished subsistence in kind.

[5]When designated by the Secretary of the Navy to have the rank of commander.

No person, active or retired, shall suffer any reduction in pay allowances, or compensation, to which he was entitled upon the effective date of this act (sec. 19, act of June 16, 1942).

An aide to a major general is allowed $200 and an aide to a brigadier general $150 per year in addition to the pay of his rank. (R. S. 1261.)

Any officer below the grade of major required to be mounted shall receive $150 per annum additional if he provides one suitable mount at his own expense, and $200 if he provides 2 mounts. (Act May 11, 1908). (Suspended for fiscal year 1943.)

Officers and warrant officers (except nonflying officers) shall receive an increase of 50 percent of their pay "when detailed to duty involving flying." (Sec. 18, act of June 16, 1942.) Nonflying officers are limited to $720 per annum.

* Officers and warrant officers who have received ratings as parachutists or are undergoing training for such ratings, shall receive additional pay at the rate of $100 per month. (Sec. 18, act of June 16, 1942.)

Retired officers and warrant officers shall, when on active duty, receive full pay and allowances of the grade or rank in which they serve on active duty. (Sec. 15, act of June 16, 1942.)

[1]Allowances in this column are on the basis of a month of 30 days. For a month of a greater or less number of days the amounts should be correspondingly increased or decreased.

[2]The maximum allowances which will accrue to a commissioned warrant officer will be such that the total of base pay, pay for length of service, and allowances for subsistence and rental of quarters, will not exceed $458.33 per month. Deduction of the necessary amount should be made from the rental allowance.

[3]Officers serving in the grade of lieutenant general shall be entitled while so serving to pay and allowances of a major general and to personal money allowance of $500 per year. (Sec. 7, act June 16, 1942 (56 Stat. 359).)
